

Declaration of Honor

I, the undersigned, [First Name and Last Name], born on [Date of Birth], residing at [Address], hereby declare on my honor that I am currently experiencing financial difficulties that prevent me from fully financing my French language training at the French Institute of Cambodia.

My current financial situation is limited due to [briefly explain: modest income, lack of stable employment, family responsibilities, studies, etc.]

.....
.....
.....

Despite my strong motivation to learn French in order to develop my academic and professional skills, my personal resources are insufficient to cover the training fees.

This is why I am applying today for the "Pass langue française" program offered by the French Institute of Cambodia with the support of BRED.

I certify on my honor that the information provided in this declaration is accurate and true.

Done at [City]....., on [Date].....

Signature

[First Name and Last Name]

.....